Office of Research Nursing (ORN)

Vision Statement

To provide a unique, cohesive team of superior research nurse specialists, clinical research coordinators and patient care coordinators to carry out the mission of the CCR through a culture that supports continuing education, mentorship, professional development, and collaboration while balancing comprehensive patient coordination and quality clinical and translational research.

Cell Therapy Working Group: Information and resources for research nurses opening or currently coordinating trials with cell therapy (CAR-T cells, TCR cells, or TIL cells). Click here.

Coffee & Chat: We meet the last Monday, Wednesday and Thursday of the month via Teams. See Teams invite for the time and any speakers.

CPR: Please check for classes offered by the Clinical Center Nursing Department or the ORS. Remember to send your updated CPR card to CCND Credentialing & Privileging Group.

License Reimbursement: Per NIH guidance, fees required for eligible licenses and certifications, such as fingerprinting, background check, transcripts, etc. will be reimbursed as part of the renewal of license/certificate. ORN will pay for license renewals, and up to two certifications (not memberships) per fiscal year. Please complete this form and submit it to your Team Lead, along with receipts and a copy of the renewed license/certification, who will approve and send on to the Director, Office of Research Nursing for final approval and submission for reimbursement. Remember to send your updated license to CCND Credentialing & Privileging Group.

NCI Medical Oncology Referral Office: Staffed by four nurses, Christine Muir, Peggy Shovlin, Amanda Carbonell, Kathy Morton, and one PCC, Christine Swafford, who assist selected teams with new patient referrals. You can contact them via phone or email. The Referral Office shared email is NCIMO_Referrals@mail.nih.gov and the shared voicemail is 240-760-6050. The fax number is 301-451-5433. These contacts may be given to anyone inquiring about clinical trials. They will respond within 24 hours.

Patient Care Coordinator (PCC) Manual: Click here.

New Patients: The NIH Clinical Center has released an informative video geared towards first-time patients to NIH. This includes information on how to get here, security and access procedures and parking. Please share with your patients.
